Nissan 5766

“SO THAT YOU
SHALL REMEMBER
THE DAY OF YOUR DEPARTURE FROM EGYPT”

“למען תזכור
את יום צאתך
מארץ מצרים”

THE RABBI'S MESSAGE

“למען תזכור את יום צאתך מארץ מצרים
כל ימי חיך”

“SO THAT YOU SHOULD REMEMBER THE DAY OF YOUR DEPARTURE FROM EGYPT ALL THE DAYS OF YOUR LIFE.” (Deut. XVI:3).

The experience of the exodus from Egypt, culminating with the splitting of the sea, is a fundamental principle, which according to Rabbi Elazar Ben Azarya, one is required to recall twice daily, morning and night. We do so when we recite the third portion of the Shema:

“אני ה' אלקיכם אשר הוצאתי אתכם מארץ מצרים
להיות לכם לאלקים”

“I am the Lord your G-d who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your G-d” (NUM. XV:41). In addition, there are numerous mitzvot, commandments, that are linked to the Exodus including Tefilin, Mezuzah, Succah, Shabbat, and holidays. As we proclaim in the Kiddush for Shabbat and Holidays: “זכר ליצאת מצרים” - “It's a commemoration of the exodus from Egypt.”

Of course, on the holiday of Passover we not only recall the Exodus but we simulate and relive the experience with: matzah – the symbol of our freedom, maror – eating bitter herbs to remind us of the bitterness they experienced, the seder – simulating the special meal held just prior to the exodus, and the haggadah - the obligation of retelling in detail the Passover events.

THE President's MESSAGE

As we approach the holiday of Pesach it behooves us to remember the many types of freedom which we enjoy. In a world in which most of the population lives under some kind of duress or lack of basic rights, we must be thankful that Hashem has enabled us to live in a country founded on freedoms of religion and speech. We can come and go as we please, live where we please, worship as we please... When we congregate in the synagogue, we must be appreciative of our ability to do so. And to recognize these rights by upholding our traditions is of the utmost importance. That's why we must be active participants of the congregation. Further, the Torah admonishes us: “Al tijrosh min batzibur” — “Do not separate yourself from the congregation”.

The meeting for first nominations has been rescheduled to April 23, the first Sunday following Pesach. Please make every effort to be there—it is an important meeting.

Best wishes for a Happy and Healthy Passover.

Danny Ravitz

PASSOVER LAWS & CUSTOMS

On Passover we celebrate the physical freedom of the Jewish people from their Egyptian bondage and at the same time their spiritual liberation from the ancient Egyptian idolatrous way of life. Thus we commemorate both our physical freedom together with our spiritual liberation.

Unique to Passover is the eating of Matzah and the stringent prohibition against eating Chametz, or even possessing any Chametz. Thus we have to prepare the home by ridding it of all Chametz before Passover.

What Is Chametz?

Chametz is a general term for all foods and drinks made from the five grains: wheat, barley, rye, oats and spelt, or their derivatives, which have fermented. The prohibition includes, as well, the taste of Chametz absorbed in food, utensils or dishes. The slightest trace of Chametz can render an entire product Chametz.

Preparing The Home

A thorough house cleaning is undertaken in preparation for Passover to be sure that the home is Chametz free. In addition to the entire house, the following places should be checked to ensure they are free from Chametz:

Office, car, pockets of clothing (especially children's), pocket books etc. Vacuum-cleaner bags should be discarded. Pet foods usually contain Chametz. Consult the Rabbi as to which foods can be used.

Mechirat Chametz – Selling The Chametz

Not only is one prohibited from eating Chametz, but one is also prohibited from possessing any Chametz on Passover. Nor are we allowed to derive any benefit from such Chametz. Chametz, which was in the possession of a Jew on Passover, may not be used even after the holiday. Therefore, any Chametz which can not be consumed or disposed of before Passover, must be sold to a non-Jew.

The sale of Chametz should take place before the onset of Passover. The legal intricacies covering this transfer of property are many and only a competent Rabbi should be entrusted with its execution. If one is going abroad or in case of emergency when the Chametz cannot be sold, consult the Rabbi as to the proper procedure.

You may fill in the form on page 8: 'Delegation of Power of Attorney For Sale of Chametz' and return it to the shul by Tuesday, April 12 at 11:00 AM or you may call the shul office at (732) 545-6123 and leave a message for Rabbi Mykoff to sell your Chametz for you. You can also reach the Rabbi at (732) 572-0457. The deadline for verbal authorization is 11:15 A.M., Wednesday, April 12.

Storing Sold Chametz & Chametz Utensils

All vessels which have been used for Chametz, as well as any Chametz intended not to be eaten before Passover but to be sold should be put aside in an inaccessible place. The vessels should be thoroughly cleansed of any trace of Chametz. If possible these and other items included in the sale of Chametz should be stored in a locked room with the key out of reach or the cabinet containing Chametz should be taped. Included in the Power of Attorney to sell the Chametz is the authorization to rent out the areas containing the Chametz for the duration of Passover.

It is best that a set of dishes, pots, pans and utensils be set aside specifically for Passover use. However, if necessary, some utensils used during the year may also be used on Passover provided that they have first been properly Kasher. If you wish to Kasher for Passover, consult Rabbi Mykoff.

Ta'anit Bechorim Fast of the First Born

When the Almighty slew the firstborn of Egypt, He spared the first born of the children of Israel. Therefore, all first-born sons of Israel are required to fast on the day before Passover in gratitude for the Almighty's salvation. It has, however, been a custom for many centuries that the fast day is broken by a Seudas Mitzvah, a festive meal in celebration of a

Mitzvah, such as a Siyum, a celebration at the conclusion of the study of a book of the Talmud.

Bedikat Chametz— Search for Chametz

In order to assure that no Chametz is to be found in one's house on Passover, we perform a Search for Chametz the night before Pesach. This year the search is made on Tuesday night, April 11. As soon as night falls, we make the final inspection for the Chametz by the light of a candle or a flashlight. BEFORE the search we recite the following blessing:

*Boruch Atoch A-do-nai E-lo-haynu Melech
Ha'olam Asher Ki'dishanu B'mitzvotav
Vi'tzivanu Al Bi'ur Chametz.*

With the candle lit, we carefully search every room and any area of the house that may contain Chametz.

We then take all the Chametz that was found in the search and place it in a conspicuous place to be burned on the morning of Wednesday, April 12, before 11:40 AM. Food intended to be sold or eaten after the search should also be put carefully aside. The search should also be conducted in places of business to be certain no Chametz remains.

People leaving their home before Passover must search for Chametz the night before their departure without reciting the blessing

Erev Pesach— Day Before Pesach

On the day before Passover, Wednesday, April 12, Chametz may not be eaten after 10:20 AM. From that time on only foods which are kosher for Passover may be eaten. However, one should not eat any Matzah the entire day prior to the Seder. Chametz should be burned by 11:40 A.M. after which time the possession of Chametz is prohibited. The following declaration of nullification should be said before 11:40 A.M.:

"All leaven or anything leavened which is in my possession whether I have seen it or not, whether I have observed it or not, whether I have removed it or not, shall be considered naught and ownerless as the dust of the earth".

Eruv Tavshilin

Since the first days of Yom Tov are Thursday and Friday, April 13 and April 14, the question of preparing on Friday for Shabbat arises. By making an Eruv Tavshilin it becomes permissible to prepare on the festival day for the Shabbat. The procedure is as follows:

On Wednesday, April 12th before sunset, the head of the household sets aside a Matzah and a cooked food item (fish, meat or an egg, etc.) and recites the following:

BORUCH A-TO A-DO-NOI ELOHEI-NU
MELECH HO-OLAM ASHER KID'SHANU
B'MITZVOSOV V'TSIVO-NU AL MITZVAS
EIRUV

"Through this it shall be permissible for us to bake, to cook, to put away a dish to preserve its heat, to kindle a light, and to prepare and do on the festival all that is necessary for the Shabbat—for us and all Israelites who dwell in this city."

It is customary to eat the foods set aside for the Eruv Tavshilin during one of the Shabbat meals.

Seder Preparation

As is true every year, certain Seder preparations should preferably be made before Yom Tov. They include:

- roasting the shankbone,
- roasting the egg,
- mixing the salt water,
- grinding or mashing the ingredients for charoset,
- grating horseradish to be used as maror,
- checking the romaine lettuce for insects.

One who forgot to grind the ingredients for charoset or to grate the horseradish for maror before Yom Tov, may do so on Wednesday night for the first Seder and on Thursday night for the second Seder.

Requirements of the Seder

There are five basic obligations that are to be performed by each participant during the Seder.

1. Eating Matzah. The minimum quantity of Matzah to be consumed is a little more than one third of an average, machine made Matzah.
2. Drinking four cups of wine (Arba Kosot). The minimum volume of the cups used during the seder is 3.0 fluid ounces (86 cc). Participants should drink more than half of this amount for each of the cups.
3. Eating bitter herbs (maror). The minimum volume for maror when using horseradish is 0.7 fluid ounces (19 grams); when using romaine lettuce leaves the minimum amount is 8" x 10"; when using stalks the minimum is 3" x 5".
4. Relating the story of the exodus (Magid). No limit!
5. Reciting Psalms of Praise (Hallel).

Sefirat Ha'Omer— Counting the Omer

The Torah commands us that from the second day of Pesach— the day the Omer offering of new barley is brought in the Temple— forty-nine days are to be counted and the festival of Shavuot is commemorated on the fiftieth day. This period is called Sefirat Ha'Omer, the Counting of the Omer.

The Sefirah also recalls the seven weeks following the Exodus, when our ancestors prepared themselves to receive the Torah at Mt. Sinai. This responsibility to prepare oneself to receive the Torah is present every year, as we relive the Exodus from bondage and strive to be worthy of receiving the Torah.

Originally, The Sefirah period was a time of rejoicing, but it is now observed as a period of semi-mourning for several reasons: the absence of the Temple; the death of Rabbi Akiva's 24,000 students during thirty-three days of the Sefirah period; and a string of bloody massacres which devastated Jewish communities during the time of the Crusades.

We begin counting on the second night of Pesach, April 13th.

לשנה הבאה בירושלים
Next year in Jerusalem!

The question arises— why is the experience of the Exodus so essential that it is ingrained in our daily lives?

The morning service begins with the prayer of ברוך שאמר— “Blessed be He who said and the world came into being.” This prayer is a prayer defining G-d. Firstly, it defines G-d as the creator, but equally important, G-d is described as the Master of the Universe whose divine providence determines and guides the universe and all mankind.

The Exodus is an affirmation of השגחה הפרתית, the Almighty's divine providence; just as He was personally involved in taking the Nation of Israel out of Egypt, so too, the Almighty is proactive in our daily lives.

May He once again redeem us and bring about the coming of the Mashiach Bimheirah B'yameinu.
